SECTION 5 - CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

MUST BE COMPLETED (A 'YES' ANSWER DOES NOT AUTOMATICALLY EXCLUDE YOUR ENROLMENT)

We need to ask all students whether they have any 'relevant' criminal convictions as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. 'Relevant' meaning offences against a person, whether violent or sexual, offences involving drugs or controlled substances, or theft. A declaration of a relevant Criminal Conviction will result in a Risk Assessment being carried out to determine whether the student poses a risk to the welfare or safety of others. This does not include warnings, cautions, reprimands and (for example) speeding fines/points.

Do you have a 'relevant' criminal conviction? Yes No

However, where a caution has been received in connection with a sexual or violent incident, we would ask that this is declared in the boxes below.

Do you have a 'relevant' violent or sexual caution? Yes No

If you are applying for a course in health, humanities, science and caring professions we need details of all sentences (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974). DN Colleges Group uses this application to collect information about you ('your personal data') to use for various administrative, academic and health and safety reasons in order to operate DN Colleges Group effectively. The Data Protection Act (2018) requires us to obtain your consent in order to do this.

SECTION 7 - DATA PROTECTION PRIVACY STATEMENT

Why do we collect personal information?

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018), DN Colleges Group (DNCG) has outlined below its purposes of processing personal data relating to potential students. This will also include purposes connected to the Colleges Admissions Policy such as course information, interview, keep warm activities and open day invitations or for any other legitimate reason which is necessary for the College to perform its obligations and effectively manage students applications to ensure they receive the most suitable support, information, advice and guidance. DN Colleges Group consists of Doncaster College and University Centre, North Lindsey College and University Campus North Lincolnshire (UCNL).

What personal information does DNCG collect?

DNCG collects and processes data using Article 6, Lawfulness of processing and Article 9, Processing of special categories of personal data within the GDPR Regulations. DNCG has deemed its lawful basis for processing as a legitimate interest to process applications and to keep in touch with potential students. DNCG will only ask for as much information needed to fulfil enquiries or application and meet their legal obligations.

How does DNCG collect and store it?

Information is collected directly from you by completing and applying either electronic (e.g. College application form, Lincs2/Lincs4U, UCAS) or paper. Data will be stored in a variety of places, including the Colleges Information Systems, on paper in secure cabinets or in electronic documents within the Colleges secure network.

How long will DNCG keep data for?

Your application data will be held for 5 years following the academic year in which you apply (currently until July 2029). If your application is successful and you enrol onto a course at DNCG application data will be transferred to form part of your student record.

Who has access to the data?

Your information will be shared internally within DNCG to staff who need access the data. Your data may also be shared with partner organisations such as Local Authorities and your current or previous school/education provider. If you are aged under 18 DNCG may contact your parents, guardian or carer to discuss your application if required.

Your rights?

As a data subject, you have several rights relating your data. You can: access and obtain a copy of your data on request; request DNCG correct any errors or incomplete data; request DNCG to delete or stop processing your data, where the data is no longer necessary for processing your application as stated; object to DNCG processing your data where we rely on legitimate interest as the legal basis for processing. For further information regarding DNCG's GDPR policies please visit www.dncolleges.ac.uk/our-policies/data-protection/ or speak to a member of staff.

SECTION 8 (Optional) - EQUALITY INFORMATION

DN Colleges Group encourages students to disclose equality-related data, to help promote Equality and Diversity within the organisation.

It aims to ensure equality of opportunity across the College and provide an environment in which individuals are treated with respect and dignity. It aims to ensure that all students and staff irrespective of disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, sexual orientation, or age, are able to fully take part on an equal basis. The College will challenge any discrimination which denies equal status and value to any member of its community. The information provided helps us to improve things, tells us where to direct our services and shows us if certain people are not making the most of them and helps us to check that everyone's needs are being met regardless of who they are.
